

Table of Contents

POWER AND PUBLIC REASON

Volume 33

Table of Contents

Introduction
Zachary Hoskins and Joan Woolfrey..... 1

PART I: KEYNOTE ADDRESSES

Humanity and the Refugee:
Another Stab at Universal Human Rights
Noëlle McAfee 9

Is Public Reason a Normalization Project?
Deep Diversity and the Open Society
Gerald Gaus 27

PART II: POWER AND PUBLIC REASON

Participation, Legitimacy, and the Epistemic
Dimension of Deliberative Democracy
Jeremy Butler..... 55

Public Reasoning under Social Conditions of Strangerhood
Melissa Yates 73

Liberal Neutrality and Gender Justice
Emily McGill-Rutherford..... 91

PART III: ASPECTS OF POWER: RIGHTS, OPPRESSION, AND VENGEANCE

Realizing the Power of Socioeconomic Human Rights
Martin Gunderson..... 115

Impotent Vengeance: Is Afterlife Belief a Vehicle to Avenge?
Geoffrey Karabin 131

“Non-Idealizing Abstraction” as Ideology: Non-Ideal Theory,
Intersectionality, and the Power Dynamics of Oppression
Youjin Kong 155

PART IV: ISSUES IN SOCIAL PHILOSOPHY

Debating Collective Responsibility: Arendt and Young Elizabeth S. Piliero	175
Online Shaming Kathryn J. Norlock	187

PART V: NASSP BOOK AWARD

PAUL B. THOMPSON, FROM FIELD TO FORK: FOOD ETHICS FOR EVERYONE

Preventing the Anti-Science Blight: A Commentary on Paul B. Thompson's From Field to Fork: Food Ethics for Everyone Gregory Hoskins	201
Commentary on Paul B. Thompson's From Field to Fork: Food Ethics for Everyone Elizabeth Sperry	209
Paternalism, Health and Dietary Choices: Commentary on Paul B. Thompson's From Field To Fork: Food Ethics for Everyone Jeffrey M. Brown	217
From Field to Fork and on to Philosophy: Response to Commentators Paul B. Thompson	225
Notes on Contributors.....	233