

CONTENTS

I. Archaeology of Peircean Concepts

1. David Pfeifer
Charles Peirce, Josiah Royce's Semiotic Move,
and Communities of Interpretation 1
2. Donna E. West
The Abductive Character of Peirce's Virtual Habit 13
3. Michal Jan Karla
Peirce's 1865 'Proofs' of Symbolization 23
4. Martin Švantner
Metaphors, Signs and Parasites: F. Nietzsche,
C. S. Peirce and Two Radical Interpretations of Aristotelian Protosemiotics 37

II. Conceptual Reconstruction in Psychosocial Contexts

5. Winfried Kudzus
Transpositions of Hunger: Nietzsche and Microscience 49
6. Peter Heinze
Teleology and the Objective Unconscious 63
7. Katja Pettinen and Myrdene Anderson
Before, Below, Behind, Beyond: Seeking Consciousnesses 73

III. Conceptual Reconstruction in Multimodal Contexts

8. Elliot Gaines
Understanding Truthiness: A Priori and
Multiple Categories of Signs in Media 87
9. Hesham Suleiman Alyousef
A Multimodal Discourse Analysis of Textual Cohesion in Tertiary Marketing Texts Written by International Undergraduate Students 99

10. Gila Safran Naveh “A Black Hole Burrowed within Us”: Semiotics at Work in László Nemes’s Holocaust Film, Son of Saul	123
IV. Archaeology of Cross-Cultural Concepts
11. Geoffrey R. Owens The Ever-Moving Signposts of Indigenoussness	135
12. Timothy Michaels The Signs in Nature: Toward an Emersonian Semiotic Theory	149
13. Ricardo Nogueira de Castro Monteiro The Construction and Deconstruction of Passion: A Semiotic Approach to the Analysis of the Representations of Love from Infatuation to Rupture in Medieval Muslim Spain	159
Index of Names	181