

Table of Contents

Editor's Introduction	iii
Contemporary Sacramental Theology: Retrieving the Eschatological Horizon Liam Bergin	1
Lonergan and the Ethics of Everyday Life Paul Bruno	13
Understanding Natural Law: Josephs Fuchs and Realms of Meaning Victor Clore	25
Experience: "A Most Enigmatic Concept" Ivo Coelho, SDB	47
Education and Life, the Good Life, and Eternal Life M. Shawn Copeland	81
Phenomenology of Redemption? Or Theory of Sanctification? Robert J. Daly, SJ	97
Themes of Bernard Lonergan's Lectures During and Shortly After the Second Vatican Council and Their Relation to Today's New Evangelization Peter Drilling	127
Newman's Idea of a University Richard M. Liddy	141
Meaning: Dimensions, Ontologies, and Dialectics William Mathews, SJ	165
Beauty and Biblical Narrative: The Case of Jephthah Russell Kevin McDougall, CSC	187
Reflections of an Historical Theologian on Fifty-Year Jubilees Bernard McGinn, SJ	209

The Hermeneutics of Reform and Renewal: Ongoing Interpretation of the Person and Work of Jesus Christ	229
Hilary Mooney
Overcoming Classicism and Relativism	239
Louis Roy, OP
Passing the Torch: Incorporating Lonergan into the Scheduled Theology Curriculum	263
Carla Mae Streeter, OP
Why Does the Earnest Desire of Vatican II that Provincial Councils Flourish with Renewed Strength Remain Unsatisfied?	271
Francis Sullivan, SJ
To Redress Forgetting: 2012 Walmart Labor Organizing and a Theology of the American Workplace	283
Charles T. Tackney
Lonergan on the Wisdom that Regards All Things: Insights from De Redemptione and Early Works on Theological Method	315
John Volk	