

Business Ethics Quarterly

The Ruffin Series:

Special Issue #1

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Section I

RICHARD RORTY, Can American Egalitarianism Survive A Globalized Economy?	1
GEORGE G. BRENKERT, Marketing and the Vulnerable	7
JOHN DANLEY, Beyond Managerialism	21
R. EDWARD FREEMAN, Poverty and the Politics of Capitalism	31

Section II

NORMAN BOWIE, A Kantian Theory of Capitalism	37
ANDREW WICKS, How Kantian a Kantian Theory of Capitalism?	61

Section III

PATRICIA H. WERHANE, Moral Imagination and the Search for Ethical Decision Making in Management	75
JOANNE B. CIULLA, Imagination, Fantasy, Wishful Thinking and Truth	99
LARUE T. HOSMER, Lessons from the Wreck of the Exxon Valdez: The Need for Imagination, Empathy and Courage	109
DEBORAH VIDAVER COHEN, Moral Imagination in Organizational Problem-Solving: An Institutional Perspective	123

Section IV

DAVID M. MESSICK, Social Categories and Business Ethics	149
DONNA J. WOOD, Ingroups and Outgroups: What Psychology Doesn't Say	173
EDWIN M. HARTMAN, Altruism, Ingroups and Fairness: Comments on Messick	179
NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS	187