

American Association of Philosophy Teachers Studies in Pedagogy

Volume 4: Experiential Learning and Education

Contents

Experiential Learning Within and Without Philosophy	1
Andrew M. Winters
Aporia as Pedagogical Technique.....	15
Derek McAllister
Aristotle on Learning How to Learn: Geometry as a Model for Philosophical Inquiry	35
Jonathan A. Buttaci
The Experienced Idea: Using Experiential Approaches to Teach Philosophical Concepts	61
Sean Blenkinsop and Chris Beeman
Embedding Teaching Critical Thinking Skills in a Philosophy Course.....	78
Julie Loveland Swanstrom
Nine Ideas for Including a Civic Engagement Theme in an Informal Logic Course	100
Lisa Cassidy
Reflections on Teaching Applied Environmental Ethics in a Philosophy Course.....	116
Craig Derksen
Playing Games and Learning from Shared Experiences.....	134
Jessey Wright
GPS Ecocache: Connecting Learners to Experience and Place.....	161
Lee Beavington and Jesse Jewell

Annotated Bibliography of Resources for Experiential Learning and Education.....	181
Andrew M. Winters
Notes on Contributors.....	193