

The Acorn

Vol 20, Special Issue 2020

Howard Thurman, Martin Luther King, Jr., and the Black Spiritual Left

Anthony Sean Neal, Guest Editor

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

Thurman and King as Transformative Philosophers of Life, Existence, and Community Development
During Times of Unchecked Oppression

Anthony Sean Neal ..... 1

Feature

Thurman’s Philosophical De-Mystified Mysticism:
Author of Howard Thurman’s Philosophical Mysticism Meets Critics

Anthony Sean Neal, Michael Barber, and Eddie O’Byrn ..... 5

Articles

“A Fulfillment So High”: New Directions in African American Philosophy for the Study of Howard Thurman and Martin Luther King, Jr.

Anthony Sean Neal ..... 23

Beyond Black Churches: Toward an Understanding of the Black Spiritual Left, featuring Du Bois, Bethune, Thurman, and Black Lives Matter

Larry Perry ..... 39

Kingian Personalism, Moral Emotions, and Emersonian
Perfectionism: A Response to Paul C. Taylor

J. Edward Hackett ..... 55

Reading King's Personalism, Or Not:
A Reply to Professor Hackett
Paul C. Taylor.....87

Contributors .....93

Acknowledgments.....95